Workshop Description: A course in the art of drawing and painting in sketch books with pen and ink and watercolor washes open to artists of all levels. Focus will be on specific landscape, figure and architectural drawing challenges that face the artist when working outdoors. The objective of the course is to train the artist how to draw these subjects with speed and accuracy. Participants will receive daily studio instruction in basic drawing principles of line, form, texture, composition and perspective. Proximity to the historic center of Florence will allow daily outdoor sketching and visits to major museums, gardens and outdoor markets. Class fee includes admissions to Uffizi Gallery, Accademia Gallery, Boboli Gardens, art supplies and a daily continental breakfast.

Travel/Lodging/Food: Participants are responsible for making their own individual arrangements. Costs are additional to workshop fee. Student apartments with kitchens as well as travel assistance is available. For additional information visit www.michaelandersonstudio.com.
