

This week, our Free Family Saturday activity is inspired by illustrator Carson Ellis' weekly drawing challenges. Feel free to come up with your own categories and descriptions. Ours are inspired by Carson Ellis' categories:

MUNDANE: these are descriptive words and phrases that are not very out-of-the-ordinary.

TRANSMUNDANE: these are descriptive words and phrases that ARE out-of-the-ordinary.

ACCESSORIES: these are words that describe attire.

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Print the list of prompts below and cut them out. Be sure to keep each category in a separate pile!
2. Draw one prompt from each pile.
3. Draw!

MUNDANE	TRANSMUNDANE	ACCESSORIES
bushy eyebrows	has the head of a frog	wearing a big top hat beautiful eyes	is glowing	wearing a magic ring carrying a baby	is a giant	wearing skis picking flowers	has a mermaid tail	wearing a princess crown sitting in a beach chair	has bat wings	wearing a bow tie building a sandcastle	has very long legs	wearing big sneakers eating ice-cream	is a ghost	wearing shoes with buckles making a sandwich	has a pumpkin head	wearing a swimsuit painting a picture	covered in spikes	wearing a pointy hat knitting a scarf	has the head of a fox	smoking a pipe petting a dog	is only an inch tall	carrying a huge backpack very long hair	has three heads	wearing a ball gown mopping the floors	has a very long beard	wearing a cozy sweater holding a cat	is mushroom-like	carrying a fancy bag

To see examples of imaginative drawings inspired by these prompts, search @carsonellis on Instagram or the hashtag #transmundanetuesdays.

If you make some at home, tag the Artists' Guild on Instagram as well with #stlag and @stlartistsguild